

The Second Annual

Heritage Village Writer's Workshop

October 7, 2017 at Calhoun County Park, Rt. 16 near Grantsville., West Virginia

9:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Registration Deadline: September 1.

Step back in time and write!
Enjoy lessons in the one-room school house, writing on the porches, readings in the chapel. This historic sanctuary was created from actual vintage buildings in the region, relocated and refurbished. Immerse yourself in the past, writing amongst memories of lives and times long gone.

← Outside

Inside →

Multi-genre prompts and exercises will be offered by Lisa Hayes Minney, publisher and editor of Two-Lane Livin' Magazine. For more information on the workshop and access to video on Heritage Village, visit Lhayesminney.net or twolanelivin.com.

Note: This historical experience includes walking, some standing, and outdoor weather. There is no electricity, no running water, no wifi. Facilities include wash basins and an outhouse. Please be prepared.
Park campsites available.

$75 includes Lunch, Refreshments & Booklet w/ Prompts & Village Historical Information.

Limited seating available. At least seven seats in the workshop must be filled for it to run.
Reservations will be fully refunded if the workshop is cancelled.
A workshop packet will be mailed to all registrants. Not responsible for accidents.

I would like to register:

1 Person 2 People ($65 per person)

NAME: _____

PHONE NUMBER: _____

EMAIL: _____

MAILING ADDRESS: _____

Mail To: Stumptown Publishing, 2287 Rosedale Rd., Stumptown WV 25267.
To register by paypal, email info@twolanelivin.com.
Pay by credit card by calling 304-354-9132.